

Come and Enjoy the Full Sister City Experience!

Take a well-earned, year-end break to experience all that Lambertville & New Hope have to offer while you attend the training!

Discover hiking trails, wineries, covered bridges, and quaint coffee shops or stroll along the majestic Delaware River and canals. Lambertville and New Hope provide some of the finest restaurants and best live music in the region. Stay for the weekend and explore the art galleries and antique shops, Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve, historic Washington's Crossing Park, or take to the river in a kayak, tube, or canoe.

Area Lodging

Lambertville and New Hope have many hotels, B&Bs, and historic Inns that can be found at expedia.com, as well as an abundance of home rentals listed through Airbnb.com. Rooms at the Clarion Inn & Suites in New Hope start at $84 a night.

Getting There

- Trans-Bridge Bus Line to Lambertville from NYC, Branchburg, Flemington
- Parking available for those driving

Let us know what we can do to make your training experience the very best it can be!

Contact: Linda Helm Krapf at 609.430.1922, or Linda@storytellingartsinc.org